"Sarah thinks that being thirteen is bad luck. That is until Jeff McKenzie, a young boy from the big city, shows up at Indian Lake Lodge for the entire summer. Things are progressing nicely for the two teens until a stagecoach robber, who has been hiding in the woods near the lodge, decides to use them as hostages in his escape plans. Suddenly Sarah finds herself alone in the middle of the Adirondack wilderness, with only the voices of her friends and her father's wilderness teachings to guide her." -- back cover.
